

About Us

What started out as a church in the 1940s became a police station in 1973, then a retail space. Aunt Margaret's Antique Mall opened its doors on July 5, 2010!

"Welcome to Aunt Margaret's Antique Mall in Newark, DE. We offer two floors of fine antiques, primitives, vintage items and collectibles. You can spend hours searching for a missing item for your collection, a replacement piece to a set, or something unique for a gift."

We offer outstanding customer service. If we don't have it, we try to find it. Add your name to our "Wish Book."
